

Dominique Hazzard

1438 Bangor St SE
Washington, DC 20020
www.dominiquehazzard.com
(301) 755-3861 dominique08@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Johns Hopkins University (2017 - present)
Pre-Doctoral Fellow, History
Advisors: Nathan Connolly and Lawrence Jackson

Research Interests: U.S. 20th Century History, Afro-Atlantic History, Environmental History, History of Land Use and Racial Capitalism

Wellesley College (2008-2012)
Bachelor of Arts, Cum Laude, Environmental Studies

Honors Thesis: The Gullah People, Justice, and the Land on Hilton Head Island: A Historical Perspective (2012), advised by James Turner

PUBLICATIONS AND DIGITAL SCHOLARSHIP

“Queering Black History and Getting Free,” in Teaching for Black Lives, Dyan Watson, Jesse Hagopian, and Wayne Au, eds. (Rethinking Schools, forthcoming)

“Food Sovereignty in Black Washington, DC: 1950 - 2017,” forthcoming

Independent Study in American Studies: The Impact of Cultural Organizations and Resources on Black and Latina Academic Achievement at Wellesley College (2011), advised by Michael Jeffries

HONORS, SCHOLARSHIPS, AND AWARDS

Community Heritage Project Grant, Humanities Council of Washington, D.C. (2017)

Departmental Honors, Wellesley College Environmental Studies department (2012)

Harry S. Truman Scholarship, Harry S. Truman Scholarship Foundation (2011)

Sophomore Early Research Opportunities Award, Wellesley College
(2009)

PRESENTATIONS

“Food Sovereignty in Black Washington, DC: 1950 - 2017” (2017)
Humanities Council of Washington, D.C. Community Heritage Project Showcase

“The Gullah People, Justice, and the Land on Hilton Head Island” (2012)
Thesis Presentation
Wellesley College, Wellesley, MA

“Native Bee Emergence and Climate Change”
(2010)
Ruhlman Conference
Wellesley College, Wellesley, MA

SERVICE

Minority Recruitment, Hiring, and Retention Committee, student member (2011-12)
Wellesley College, Wellesley, MA

TEACHING

Aga Khan High School, IB Environmental Systems teacher (Summer 2011)
Kampala, Uganda

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Urban History Association

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

DC Greens, Community Engagement Specialist

(5/2015- present)

Washington, D.C.

Local non-profit organization improving food access, food education, and food policy in the District of Columbia

- Coordinate outreach for Produce Plus, a city-wide farmers market nutrition incentive program that serves over 7,000 low-income residents

- Developed the Market Champions program, a team of paid Produce Plus customers who work to connect residents to the program and help farmers' markets in DC develop as inclusive community spaces
- Support the development of just food policy advocacy strategies
- Administer a grant to collect and curate community stories for an advocacy campaign to secure the place of food funding in the D.C. city budget

GlobeMed, Diversity & Inclusion Coordinator

(10/2013- 9/2014)

Washington, D.C.

National non-profit organization supporting long term community health partnerships between undergraduate students and grassroots organizations around the world

- Crafted an organizational inclusion strategy
- Built relationships with faculty and administration at Minority Serving Institutions (MSIs); recruited students to establish two new chapters at MSIs in 2014
- Conducted cultural competency trainings for staff, students, and international partners
- Developed and piloted a program to expand access to the GlobeMed network to community college students